

Dear Church Family,

I hope you had a blessed Christmas celebration and a wonderful start to the New Year! It was a joy to see both familiar and new faces as we gathered to celebrate the season. One of the delights of New Year's Day was hearing my children call their grandparents to say "sae-hae bok ma-ni ba-deu-se-yo"—the Korean New Year greeting that means "May you receive many blessings in the New Year."

While we all hope for blessings and breakthroughs, we also know that the New Year doesn't automatically guarantee them. We know the New Year is still filled with the same old struggles rather than the fresh start we'd hoped for.

But here's my prayer for you, and I believe this is the key to Christian blessings: "Just as you received Christ Jesus as Lord, continue to live your lives in him, rooted and built up in him, strengthened in the faith as you were taught, and overflowing with thankfulness" (Colossians 2:7). This is our biblical theme for 2026, and I invite you to meditate on it and live it out throughout this year.

Beginning this year, we are exploring our roots as United Methodists that help us "let Christ" into our lives and deepen our spiritual connections to God and one another. What would Jesus empower you to do to be more deeply rooted in Christ in 2026? What would Jesus empower our Succasunna UMC to be and do to be built up more firmly? In a sense, this newsletter is a reflection of what God is doing in and through SUMC. I invite you to join me in discerning and being a vital part of God's story in this New Year.

During this season of Epiphany and the New Year, I invite you to take time to prioritize worshipping God, seeking the presence of Jesus each day as we grow our roots deeper in Christ. May each of you be rooted and built up in Christ!

Looking forward to connecting with you!

Grace and Peace,

Rev. Myounghun Stephen Yun, Pastor

Updates on Votes from Annual Conferences

The Council of Bishops of The United Methodist Church has completed canvassing the votes of annual conferences on the four constitutional amendments that were approved by the 2024 General Conference.

Amendments

	Yes Votes	No Votes	Percentage
Amendment I	34,148	3,124	91.60%
Amendment II	33,895	2,920	92.00%
Amendment III	33,875	2,989	91.90%
Amendment IV	33,952	2,792	92.40%

By The Book of Discipline (BOD) any proposed constitutional amendments require ratification by annual conferences. The results are canvassed, certified and announced by the Council of Bishops. The four proposed constitutional amendments are as follows:

1 Regionalization

A set of amendments to create new regional conferences that will each have equal power to adapt portions of the BOD within their respective regions.

2. Inclusiveness of the Church

An amendment to add the words “gender” and “ability” to Paragraph 4, Article 4 of The UMC Constitution to categories that cannot be used to exclude membership in The United Methodist Church.

3. Racial Justice

An amendment to strengthen Article V of The UMC Constitution by explicitly recognizing the church’s role in combating racism, racial inequity, colonialism, white privilege, and white supremacy.

4. Educational Requirements for Clergy

General Conference voted to amend Section VI, Article IV of The United Methodist Church Constitution, which establishes the educational requirements for clergy members of annual or provisional conferences who are eligible to vote for clergy delegates to the General Conference.

Regarding the shooting in Minneapolis

In a pastoral letter to the Dakotas-Minnesota Episcopal Area following the shooting of a woman by federal agents, Bishop Lanette Plambeck calls congregations to be places of refuge and prayer. She urges United Methodists to be attentive in grief, to listen to those who are afraid, and to remain open to voices that challenge our assumptions.

“In this fragile space between tragedy and truth, may we be a people who lament honestly, seek justice humbly, and refuse the lie that violence has the final word,” writes Bishop Plambeck.

She concludes the letter with a prayer:

*God of mercy and nearness,
we come to you with heavy hearts.
We grieve a life lost and hold close all who mourn.
Be near to those whose hearts are broken,
to those who are afraid,
and to all who are waiting for truth to come into the light.*

*In this tender space between tragedy and understanding,
teach us to lament honestly,
to seek justice with humility,
and to walk gently with one another.
Guard us from haste, from hardened hearts,
and from the temptation to let fear or violence shape our way.*

*We place our hope in you, O God of resurrection.
When death and grief seem to have the final word,
remind us that life and love endure.*

*Make us instruments of your peace,
and keep us faithful in the days ahead.
We offer this prayer in the name of Jesus,
who brings life out of death
and hope out of sorrow.*

Amen!

New Year Sermon Series 2026

“Rediscovering Our United Methodist Roots”

Jan 4, 11, 18, & 25

Roots give us the stability and nourishment we need to grow and break new ground. As we seek to grow in our faith as individuals and as a church, looking back at the deep roots of the Methodist movement can help us look forward to our future. More than mere traditions or rituals, our Methodist roots are evidence of God’s Spirit moving through our history—the same Spirit who is breathing life into us today.

Lenten Series 2026 & Sermon Series

Join us for our Lenten Worship & Sermon Series beginning Feb 22

Easter centers on the crucifixion and resurrection of Jesus, but here's what's remarkable: the resurrection didn't happen in isolation. It unfolded before a crowd of witnesses—women and men whose stories can teach us today. What if we stepped into Easter through their eyes? By exploring the overlooked moments—the silence, the side characters, the questions that linger—we gain fresh perspective on devotion, opposition, freedom, courage, companionship, and alliances.

Through their witness, we discover that resurrection isn't just a past event but an invitation into something new, unexpected, and life-changing. Walk through this season with eyes wide open. Look for where God is moving, even in the margins. Because the cross is not the end of the story—so embrace every unlikely moment along the way. Join us as we take this Lenten journey together through worship.

"An Unlikely Lent-Extraordinary People of the Easter Story" written by Rachel Billups .

The crucifixion and resurrection of Jesus are at the heart of the story of Easter. But the resurrection was not witnessed in isolation; it unfolded before a crowd. What might the stories of those women and men teach us today? How will they help us step into the story of Easter? Here, we can see what has been overlooked, not just in the grand moments but in the in-between: the silence, the side characters, and the questions. Gain new insight from the crowd on the themes of: -Devotion -Opposition -Freedom -Courage -Companionship -Alliances By seeing the Easter story through their eyes, we may discover that the resurrection is not just a past event, but an invitation into something new, unexpected, and unlikely. Walk through this season with eyes wide open, ready to see where God is moving, even in the margins. Since the cross is not the end of the story, embrace every unlikely moment along the way.
